

Exceeding Level of Training, Vignette 3

Narration:

Jasmine is ready to return home. She realizes how much she has learnt about the local community, herself and the global practice of medicine. As she prepares for her flight, she begins to fill out her post-elective evaluation form which asks what advice she would offer to future medical students preparing for their elective rotations.