

Selecting a Research Project, Vignette 2

Narration: Bryce is distressed but now has a better understanding of the community's concerns. He contacts his home advisor and his research sponsor about what to do. To his surprise, both are willing to postpone his original research project. They work out a different project in collaboration with his local supervisor.